

situation. The Headteacher and Mid-day Assistants keep note of children who continually misbehave.

The Mid-day Assistants must be treated with the respect expected by all adults at St Saviour's Catholic Junior School. Verbal or physical abuse will not be tolerated.

Persistent or serious misbehaviour at lunchtime is brought to the attention of the Headteacher or the Deputy Headteacher. This results in loss of privileges and playtimes. Parents will be informed immediately, if there is no improvement in behaviour the child will be excluded from the premises at lunchtime for a fixed time. This will be followed, if necessary, by a fixed term exclusion.

Parents

Parents can help:

- By recognising that an effective school behaviour policy requires close partnership between parents, teachers and children
- By discussing the school rules with their child, emphasising their support of them and assisting when possible with their enforcement
- By attending Parents' Evenings, parents' functions and by developing informal contacts with school
- By knowing that learning and teaching cannot take place without sound discipline
- By remembering that staff deal with behaviour problems patiently and positively

Care and Control of Children

At all times staff should encourage good behaviour through praise and rewards. No member of staff must in any way physically chastise a child

If there is a need for sanctions then the following may be used, depending on each Child's needs:
